Manor Hill's the place to be a champion

Dear Parents and Carers,

It has been a wonderful week here at Manor Hill and we are certainly getting into the festive spirit. The Christmas decorations have been put up around the school today and it's lovely to hear the children practising for their performances too!

Year 1-4 enjoyed their visits to The New Vic Theatre to see The Nutcracker on Tuesday and Wednesday. The staff at the theatre commented on how wonderful our children were and it was clear to see how much everyone enjoyed the production, their faces were a delight!

Reception and Nursery had a lovely morning today with a visit from Hoglets, who brought along Henry the Hedgehog to meet them, their questions were super! Even more fun is in store for Reception as they visit the Snowdome on Monday for a wintery adventure, I wonder who they will meet there?

Tomorrow we are looking forward to our Open Day 10-12, please do share this with anyone looking for a Nursery or Reception place next year.

Have a lovely weekend,

Jess Roden

Uniform

A reminder that children may not wear non uniform items as part of their PE kits. PE hoodies may only be worn on PE days.

As the weather has turned colder it is essential that all children have a warm coat in school each day.

Christmas Jumper Day

On Thursday we will wear our Christmas jumpers and non uniform.

A donation for Save the Children and a donation of chocolate or sweets for our Christmas Fayre would be appreciated.

Thank you

Christmas Performances

We have tickets still available in the school office for those who have not yet purchased them.

They are £1 each and are limited to 2 tickets per child at this time.
